December & January 2021                      2022

401 Lincolnway East, Mishawaka, In. 46544

Greetings to my fellow FPC family and friends!

The Advent season is a season of waiting, but our whole life should be an Advent season. What this means is that whether our times on earth are good or bad, happy or sad, we should always wait patiently and be ready for Christ's return in our daily lives.

In the days of Ahaz as king of Judah, there was a political tension among Southern Judah, Northern Israel and Syria. The alliance of Pekah, King of Israel with Rezin, King of Syria threatened King Ahaz with invasion of Judah if Ahaz would not help them against Assyria.

In this desperate situation, God sent the prophet Isaiah to King Ahaz and spoke through the prophet, "Take heed, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint [because of their threat]" (Isaiah 7:4). Isaiah assured the king that God would be with Ahaz, and encouraged him to trust God.

The LORD spoke to the king, saying, "Ask a sign of the LORD your God" (Isaiah 7:11a). Did the king ask for a sign when God offered? Unfortunately, the king refused to receive a divine sign. King Ahaz trusted his enemy Assyria to deliver him from his troubles with Israel and Syria rather than risk trusting God.

After the king's rejection, Isaiah replied with a following message, "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary mortals, that you weary my God also? Therefore, the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel" (Isaiah 7:13-14).

Whether King Ahaz would admit this divine sign or not, God would be with Israel. Isaiah's prophecy was partially fulfilled with the birth of Isaiah's son, Maher-shalal-has-baz (Ref. Isaiah 8:1-4). Judah would escape Assyrian captivity. However, Isaiah's prophecy ultimately was fulfilled after the birth of Christ, which took 700 years of waiting.

When King Ahaz ruled over Judah, it was such a difficult time for the people of Israel due to the political disaster, social disorder, and moral corruption. However, even in the midst of chaos, God spoke through a prophet to his people, Israel, that the Messiah would come and restore God's relationship with his people. God fulfilled his promise by sending his Son Jesus – Immanuel, which means "God with us".

In the midst of all crises, true hope comes by our faith in Jesus who is always with us and wants to turn our darkness into light, our conflict into peace, our despair into joy.

How should we live our lives until Christ returns?

Celebrating Advent means being able to wait patiently and live faithfully until Christ returns. As we continue to anticipate Christ's glorious return during this Advent season, may your hearts be filled with hope, peace, joy and love.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
Pastor Daniel

Joy Offering

The Joy Offering will be received during the Advent and Christmas season. Fifty percent of this Offering will be used to honor the faithfulness of current and retired church workers and their families in critical financial emergency, a health-care crisis or even assistance to pastors affected by natural disasters.

The other fifty percent will make it possible for students to learn and grow in faith at Presbyterian-related schools and colleges equipping communities of color. You will find an Offering envelope in your Offering envelope box and by the Offering plate by the middle door to the sanctuary. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

The Mission Committee

Deacon's Christmas Shopping is scheduled for Dec 4th at JC Penny's. At the writing of this article we are still trying to determine the time 8 am or 9 am. There will be an announcement as soon as we know for sure. If you feel comfortable coming out and shopping, please sign up on the clipboard. We are committed to 50 kids, and there is still time to donate if you have not already done so. Envelopes are in the pews or your envelope box. Please mark "Christmas Shopping" on the check if you could.

Advent Fellowship
With Covid still being a thing, we felt it best to scale back the progressive dinner this year, and instead will have a fellowship time, games, a desert bar and maybe sing some Carols.
DATE IS NOW DECEMBER 18TH AT 6:30 pm.
We have some fun things planned and hope you can join us.

The Christmas Card bulletin board is done and ready for your personal touch. Please share photos, cards or messages with your church family.
Pastor Daniel has made special activity sheets for the children for the four weeks of Advent. Copies can be found clipped to clipboards found on a front pew.

Our Chrismon Tree
Symbols decorating the sanctuary tree are called "Chrismons", a name taken from the words "Christ" and "monogram." A Chrismon is a monogram of Christ and a symbol that conveys an inner meaning of the Gospel itself ---reflections of the holy Christian faith. Please pick up a flyer for more details.
(they are under the tree)

Please send information for the February news letter to Sue Rice by January 17th. suce@aol.com Thank you.

Greetings from the Worship and Music committee

We hope everyone had a joy filled Thanksgiving. We have so many people and things to be thankful for.

Ushers for December 26th and January 2nd are very much needed.

Christmas Eve service will begin at 7pm with the Hand bell choir directed by Judy Green.

The choir loft will be filled with many voices to help lead us in traditional carols and songs.

clwucko@sbcglobal.net or Alan acamren34@gmail.com know, the sooner the better) Desheng Huang will be directing the choir.

We will gather at our own church on December 26. I will be giving the message (Pastor Daniel has a personal day) "Christmas songs and their stories".

On January 2, Epiphany Sunday, as this is the first Sunday of the year, there is room for volunteer helpers.

Are there any bread bakers in our congratulations? If so, your help with baking the communion bread would be a great help.

Our congregation has been a blessing to the church and our community. Thank you all again, may the Lord bless you all, Judy Sulak Worship and Music

After service on January 2nd, we will be taking down decorations. Please think about sticking around to help out.

Pantry director, Shelia, reports that the number of clients is ever increasing. On a monthly basis the pantry serves around 180 families and 600 individuals. Each month the number of new family clients averages out to be about 30. There has been speculation that the pantry may see/need some changes coming in 2022.

The members here at FPC are always so giving, thank you.
Respectfully submitted, Janet Freeman

Thanksgiving baskets were delivered to fourteen families from Battell School on Sunday, November 21.

The families received a voucher for a ham or turkey in addition to all the trimmings for their Thanksgiving dinner including pumpkin pie. Thank you to the generous members of our congregation for bringing the groceries, pies, rolls and donations for the vouchers. You are providing a reason for these families to be thankful and know they are loved. Thank you also to those that delivered the baskets to the families.

Happy Thanksgiving to you all!!
